Betty Pearl Smith

Funeral services for Betty Pearl Smith, 81 year-old Weatherford, Oklahoma resident, was held Thursday, October 22, 2020, 2:00 P.M. in Life Fellowship Church with Ric Freeman officiating. Burial followed in Greenwood Cemetery under the direction of Lockstone Funeral Home.

Betty was born June 27, 1939, in Ada, Oklahoma, to James Berry and Mary Elizabeth (Wallace) Manuel and passed away, surrounded by her family, on Tuesday, October 20, 2020, at Weatherford Regional Hospital.

Betty was one of 14 children, 10 sisters, and 4 brothers. She had a twin brother Billy Earl who only lived to be 19 days old. Betty grew up around Chickasha, Oklahoma. In November of 1956, she met the love of her life Kenneth Lee Smith, and they were married on January 18, 1957. She was 17 and he was 19. They soon started their family, and they had five children: Johnnie, Keith, Randy, Karen, and Travis. In the early years of their marriage, Betty and Kenneth resided in Dumas, Texas, but moved to Weatherford, Oklahoma, in November 1977, where their family continued to grow. Betty and Kenneth were married for 58 years until his death on April 25, 2015.

Betty had many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was always there for every activity they were involved in, and she was everyone's biggest fan. She went to every sporting event from itty-bitty soccer to high school football, and we could always hear her cheering from the crowd. She loved all of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and made sure that each one had a unique and special place in her heart. She loved to play solitaire and watch old western movies, but the one thing she loved the most was to be surrounded by her family. She was one of the sweetest and most caring ladies you would ever meet, and you could see the love she had for her family radiate from her. Betty was a woman of God and attended Life Fellowship Church in Weatherford.

Betty is survived by her four sons: Johnnie Smith and wife Pat of Claude, Texas, Keith Smith of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Randy Smith and wife Ronda of Weatherford, Oklahoma, and Travis Smith and wife Brandie of Weatherford, Oklahoma. Eight grandsons: Casey Smith and wife Tiffany of Amarillo, Texas, Shawn Smith and wife Amber of Claude, Texas, Jason Smith and wife Stephanie of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Timothy Smith and wife Heather of Mustang, Oklahoma, Ronnie Smith and wife Mallory of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Tyler Selman of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Kory Selman and wife Jordan of Weatherford, Oklahoma, James Spain and wife, Jamie of Corn, Oklahoma, and Dyson Smith of Weatherford, Oklahoma. Five granddaughters: Tara Payne and husband Trey of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Amber Nanney and husband Thomas of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Renissa Roberts of Weatherford, Oklahoma, Tony Smith of Weatherford, Oklahoma, and Kenlee Copeland and husband Tacoma of Weatherford, Oklahoma. Twenty-five Great-grandchildren: Makayla Smith, Cade Roberts, Mason Smith, Tristen Smith, Brenden Smith, Matthew Smith, David Smith, Brenden Spain, Joseph Kindsfather, Kyser Smith, Trendyn Payne, Stevie Spain, Gunnar Smith, Talyn Payne, William Kindsfather, Ryker Smith, Xander Smith, Cooper Selman, Kipton Selman, Knox Selman, Sawyer Smith, Kase Selman, Maddox Smith, Trakyr Payne, and Spencer Smith. Two sisters: Dovie Clause of Moore, Oklahoma, and Lovie Tannehill of Ninnekah, Oklahoma; and one brother William Floyd Manuel of Sherman, Texas.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband Kenneth Smith, her daughter Karen Smith-Spain, her parents James and Mary Manuel, and many brothers and sisters.

Grandma, you have left such a legacy. You are and always will be the heart of this family. We are so sad that you are no longer here to cheer for us from the crowd or spoil us. We know you are in a much better place and you are dancing with Grandpa and Karen as we speak. Heaven is rejoicing as they have received such an amazing woman. I know you will watch over all of us as we continue to build this family you created. We love you so much and we know we will see you again. - Kenlee

"The Coin Guy" 1st American Circulating Currency

Trent Boesen

Issues of currency notes in the United States are those from the War of 1812. They are rare and unusual Treasury notes. They are not considered "legal tender" and fail to comply with today's Federal standards.

In order to raise funds to fight the British Congress enacted legislation to print currency from 1812 to 1815. Denominations in the amounts of $20 to $1,000 were made. The only denominations to survive today were $3 to $50 notes. These notes were used to pay for customs duties, goods and services, and to allow banks to have cash reserves.

A collector assembled 21 examples of notes and these will go on the auction block on November 4, 2020 in Dallas, Texas. These notes were printed by the firm of Murray, Draper, Fairman, & Co. in Philadelphia.

The above $3 note is unique and has a pre-auction estimate of $150,000 to $250,000.

Do you have questions about collecting but didn't know whom to ask? Call Trent A.K.A. the Coin Guy at 580-890-8076. We can meet at Jerry's and discuss your concerns. Thanks for reading.

WFRC August 2020 Volunteer of the Month

Weatherford Food & Resource Center's Volunteer of the Month for August 2020 is Vicki Perkins.

Vicki is a resident of Weatherford. Previously, she lived in Enid where she taught elementary and middle school for 28 years. Three beautiful daughters and five wonderful grandchildren are her pride and joy. Her favorite food is a Pecina's burrito. June 2020 is when Vicki began volunteering at WFRC as a shopping assistant.

She has put in 32 hours of work. Her favorite thing about Weatherford Food & Resource Center is being able to witness how caring the community is, especially when the Weatherford Police Department delivers food to clients. When Vicki isn't volunteering at WFRC, you'll find her in her garden or volunteering for CASA.

A special story about Vicki: We had a senior citizen client, who has no family to help care for her, needing a ride to her doctor's appointment in Edmond. Guess who stepped up to provide transportation for the client. Yup, that's right, our Ms. Vicki. Gosh, we love her heart!

Would you like to join Vicki in fighting hunger and feeding hope in western Oklahoma? Sign up to volunteer at <http://signup.com/go/SNSMWW> or contact Kendra at (580) 774-5377 or volunteer@weatherfordfric.org.

HIGHER GROUND Amazing Grace

“What’s So Amazing About Grace?” This is the title of a book written by Philip Yancey, a brilliant writer and author of a number of books. Published in 1997, it resonates even more today in the height of angry political rhetoric and name-calling.

In one chapter entitled “The Lovesick Father,” Yancey describes a British conference on comparative religions. Experts from around the world gathered to debate what was unique about the Christian faith. After some discussion, C.S. Lewis wanders into the room and asked what they discussing. When told, he said, “Oh, that’s easy. It’s grace.”

After some discussion the group agreed. As Yancey says, “The notion of God’s love coming to us free of charge, no strings attached, seems to go against every instinct of humanity.”

Every other religion in the world bears with it some effort on man’s part to earn God’s favor. The Christian faith is like receiving a gift which we never earned or deserved. It simply involves relinquishing control of our lives to allow his grace-filled Spirit to set up residence in our hearts. In that process, not as a separate act, we recognize our sin and by faith accept His death on the cross as full payment for our sins, past, present, and future.

Perhaps the best know hymn is Amazing Grace, written by a converted slave trader, John Newton. It is amazing that in the ‘70s it rose to the top of the music charts, even in the secular world. Everybody seems to feel that we all are in need of grace.

Yancey tells a story that pictures grace in a way that few of us could demonstrate. He accompanied a group to Russia during a time when the Communist state was falling apart. The Russians had requested their presence to help them restore morality in their country. General Stolyarov, Vice-Chairman of the KGB begins; “We here in the USSR realize that too often we’ve been negligent in accepting those of the Christian faith. But political questions cannot be decided until there is sincere repentance, a return to faith by the people. That is the cross I must bear. In the study of scientific atheism, there was the idea that religion divides people. Now we see the opposite:

love for God can only unite.”

Seated in the room was Alex Leonovich, a Christian evangelist. He responded, “General, you say you repent. Many members of my family suffered because of this organization. My dear Uncle went to a labor camp in Siberia and never returned. General, you say that you repent. Christ taught us how to respond. On behalf of my family, on behalf of my uncle who died in the Gulag, I forgive you.” He then reached over to the KGB Vice-Chairman and gave him a Russian bear hug.

As a country and as a people, perhaps divided as never before, we desperately are in need of giving and receiving grace. We know little about disagreeing gracefully. We are prone to judgment, condemnation, and verbal abuse. Sadly, we in the Christian community are not except from this sin. Andy Rooney is quoted as saying, “I am against abortion; I believe it is murder, but strangely I feel more comfortable in the midst of a secular pro-choice group than with right-wing conservatives.”

“Amazing Grace, How sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me.” To comment: jhm82@outlook.com or 580-772-2311

Week 8 high school football scores and highlights

Danny Henderson
Wright Wradio Sports Director

The Custer County Conflict lived up to its billing last Friday night as the Weatherford Eagles shutout the Clinton Red Tornados, 14-0. It was the first shutout by Weatherford's defense against Clinton since 1943. The #2 ranked Eagles scored on its first possession of the game on a 2-yard run by Ethan Downs after Sam Hoffman's 83-yard run deep into Clinton territory. The second Weatherford score came on the opening possession of the second half as the Eagles used up much of the third quarter going 81 yards on 15 plays.

QB Gunnar Gaunt sneaked the ball over the goal line for the TD and the final score for the win. Clinton's offense was held to just over 100 total yards. Clinton is on the road at Elk City this week, while Weatherford will host Bethany.

The Merritt Oilers were unable to slow down the Thomas Terriers' offense last Friday night as Class A's #4 ranked team won convincingly, 42-13. Thomas' seven scoring drives averaged, unofficially, 66 yards per possession. The shortest was 62 yards; the longest was 74 yards. Senior running back Ethan Hamberlin surpassed the 1,000 yards rushing plateau who has now amassed 1,068 yards this season. Thomas will have its final regular season home game against Burns Flat-Dill City at Ross Field this Friday evening.

The Sayre Eagles hit a rough patch at Burns Flat-Dill City last Friday getting shutout, 24-0. Sayre is now tied with Fairview for fifth place in A-1 district standings with two games remaining: vs Texhoma at home and at Mooreland on Friday, November 6.

In other local action, Waynoka beat Corn Bible Academy, 46-0.

Schools not in action last Friday, included: Elk City, Mangum, and Cordell.

Rodeo Duo Named Newest Bulldogs of the Week

Doug Self
SWOSU Sports Information Director

The SWOSU Athletic Department is proud to continue the selection for Bulldogs of the Week during the fall by choosing Shelby Lankford and Timothy Troyer of the SWOSU Rodeo team as the newest award winners.

The award is brought to you by Wright Wradio, the home of the Bulldogs over the airwaves on both 95.5 'The Coyote' and 100.3 'Coyote Classic.'

Lankford (Blanchard, Okla.) is a senior at SWOSU, competing in Breakaway Roping, and she chose to attend SWOSU because it's reputation preceded itself and she wanted to carry on the tradition started by her Dad, who also competed for the Bulldog Rodeo Team. Her favorite memory during college was getting to rope at the College Finals, which she said was a great feeling to live out her dreams while wearing SWOSU Blue.

Quote: "The best part of this challenging semester has been the extra time spent with my team. We may not have gotten to travel to rodeos this semester, but we have made the best of the cards we were dealt."

Favorite Athlete: Trevor Brazile

Personal Goals for Season: My personal goal this year is to rope smart and consistent. This year is going to be a marathon and it will be important to stay strong mentally and physically.

Troyer (Columbia, Ky.) is a sophomore Saddle Bronc rider for the Bulldogs and he chose to attend SWOSU because of the location, which made it feel like a great fit for him to rodeo. His favorite memories are the college rodeos, because his team is able to get together and cheer on everyone to do their best, even if some teammates are also other competitors.

Quote: "The best part of this semester is that most classes were split in half, meaning I only have to go to class one day a week instead of two, which gives me more time to work on building furniture and working out."

Favorite Athlete: I have a few favorites, but one that has always stood out to me and is someone I look up to is Brody Cress.

Personal Goal for Season: I hope to qualify for the College National Finals and from there win the College Finals in the Saddle Bronc.

Theodore Roosevelt - part 2

Kelly R. Kilhoffer
Oklahoma History
Enthusiast

Theodore Roosevelt had lost the two most important women in his life. His mother Mittie and his wife Alice Lee Hathaway passed away within a twelve-hour period of each other. TR had been with each of them when they died.

He threw himself into his work, while his sisters stayed with him to help care for his newborn daughter Alice who was named after her mother. Theodore knew little about raising a baby. He seldom slept. His family listened as he paced his room until the early morning hours. He had been fighting corrupt politicians and judges in New York City (some things never change). After the death of his wife, he took his anger out on them all. Exposing their corruption would become the first display of his signature tenacity.

He seldom spoke of Alice's death. He was hollow inside, and he knew it. Back in 1883, he traveled to the Badlands of The Dakotas for a buffalo hunt. He now longed for that part of the country again. The West was calling to him. Answering that call would quench his thirst for adventure and perhaps heal his battered soul. He announced to his fellow statesmen that he would be leaving for the Dakotas. He would take a leave of absence to mend himself.

He settled in near Medora, North Dakota, still a territory at the time. Most of the rugged frontiersmen thought him to be a "dude," in his store-bought buckskins and Boss of the Plains hat. His clothes may have looked the part, but the lanky man with glasses and a mouthful of teeth seemed out of place.

He hired a couple of men to accompany him on a hunt. Since money was money, they accepted. They were surprised to see that the "greenhorn" covered more ground than they could. He soon left the two lagging behind, and as he bagged his game, they began to respect the determination in their employer.

It was while in Medora, visiting new friends (TR loved engaging in conversations), that he bumped into the local bad man Bill Jones. Jones was the stereotypical bad man and a known killer. His language was considered the foulest that Roosevelt had ever heard. Roosevelt was a man with standards and Jones had crossed the line of civility. Confronting Jones about it, TR said, "Bill, I can't tell why in the world I like you, for you're the nastiest-talking man I have ever heard."

Jones' hand dropped to his gun. The cowboys and locals stepped clear. Roosevelt stood firm. What happened next left spectators in awe and shocked. Jones cleared his throat and spoke, "I don't belong to your outfit Mr. Roosevelt, and I'm not beholden to you for anything. All the same, I don't mind saying that maybe I've been a little too free with my mouth." Roosevelt had stood toe-to-toe with this desperado and never wavered. His stock went up with the locals.

After some time, he bought a herd of cattle for 14 thousand dollars. The previous year, he invested in a ranch near Cheyenne, Wyoming, so it wasn't his first foray into the cattle business. What he built would come to be known as The Elkhorn Ranch, some 35 miles north of Medora.

By 1886, Roosevelt was becoming a true man of the West. He hunted all manner of beast, including grizzlies. He helped his cowboys with the cattle, working side-by-side, except when his asthma made him take pause.

He faced down more than one threat against his life.

He returned to New York that year to test the political waters. When crowds gathered to hear his speeches, it seemed a return to politics was a legitimate cause.

The Winters of 1886 and 1887 had plans to destroy his Western livelihood. The Winter of Blue Snow, as the pioneers would come to call it, was the worst in history. Cattle died from exposure. Ranchers, who began to fence off their lands, cut fences so that the starving cattle could roam and forage.

The snow became so deep that soon cattle wandered over the now buried fences. It was a common sight to find cattle in town, eating tar paper off buildings. They died by the thousands. When it was over, Roosevelt was finished as well. Theodore Roosevelt's adventure in the West was coming to a close.

(to be concluded next week)

Walmart and Sam's Club's Campaign Raises $221,000

Oklahomans helped to raise $221,189 for the Regional Food Bank of Oklahoma through Walmart and Sam's Club's "Fight Hunger. Spark Change." campaign. In its seventh year, Walmart and Sam's Club engaged their customers and members, along with 22 suppliers to fight hunger during the COVID-19 pandemic and support local food banks across the country.

"Joining in the fight against hunger has never been more important than now, with the increasing number of Oklahomans in need of food assistance as a result of the pandemic," said Stacy Dykstra, chief executive officer of the Regional Food Bank. "We are incredibly grateful for Walmart, Sam's Club, their associates, suppliers and everyone in our community who helped to support the 'Fight Hunger. Spark Change.' campaign."

Oklahomans participated in the campaign by purchasing select items from Walmart stores and Sam's Clubs during the promotion period. Customers also had the option to round up their purchases to benefit the Regional Food Bank.

The donations come at a time when Feeding America projects food insecurity in Oklahoma to worsen across the state due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The donation will help provide 884,756 meals to Oklahomans living with hunger in the Regional Food Bank's 53 county service-area in central and western Oklahoma.

"This year's Fight Hunger. Spark Change. campaign is especially critical given the great need communities are facing," said Maria Zazycki, senior manager, Walmart.org. "We are incredibly proud of the way our customers, members, suppliers and associates stepped up to support local Feeding America member food banks that are working so hard."

Walmart and Sam's Club are crucial partners of the Regional Food Bank. Along with monetary donations and grants, both Walmart and Sam's Club rank as top donors in the Regional Food Bank's Retail Recovery Program. Through the program, the Regional Food Bank pairs its community-based partner agencies with local Walmart and Sam's Club locations to recover food from the businesses. Nearly $18 million was raised nationwide this year through "Fight Hunger. Spark Change." to benefit the 200 Feeding America member food banks nationwide. Additionally, Walmart kickstarted the campaign with a $3 million donation to Feeding America and member food banks. The Walmart Foundation also donated $5 million to Feeding America to help support communities and individuals facing hunger during the COVID-19 pandemic.

STATE QUESTIONS

STATE QUESTION NO. 805 INITIATIVE PETITION NO. 421

This measure seeks to add a new Article II-A to the Oklahoma Constitution. This new Article excepts and does not apply to persons who have ever been convicted of a violent felony. It would prohibit the use of a former felony conviction to increase the statutorily allowable base range of punishment for a person subsequently convicted of a felony. Individuals who are currently incarcerated for felony sentences that were enhanced based on one or more former felony convictions, and whose sentences are greater than the maximum sentence that may currently be imposed for such felonies, may seek sentence modification in court. The new Article sets forth a detailed process for such sentence modification, including but not limited to requirements for a hearing, appointment of counsel for indigent petitioners, and notification of victims, and requires that the court impose a modified sentence no greater than the current maximum sentence which may be imposed on a person convicted of the same felony with no former felony convictions, and which results in no greater time served in prison than under the original sentence. It establishes an appeal procedure, provides an effective date, and contains a severability clause.

SHALL THE PROPOSAL BE APPROVED?

- FOR THE PROPOSAL - YES
- AGAINST THE PROPOSAL - NO

STATE QUESTION NO. 814 LEGISLATIVE REFERENDUM NO. 375

This measure seeks to amend Article 10, Section 40 of the Oklahoma Constitution (Section 40), which directs proceeds from the State's settlements with or judgments against tobacco companies. Currently, Section 40 directs 75% of proceeds to the Tobacco Settlement Endowment Trust Fund (TSET Fund), where earnings may only be used for tobacco prevention programs, cancer research, and other such programs to maintain or improve the health of Oklahomans. Meanwhile, the remaining 25% of proceeds are directed to a separate fund for the Legislature (Legislative Fund). The Legislature can also direct some of that 25% to the Attorney General.

This measure amends Section 40 to reduce the percentage of proceeds that go into the TSET Fund from 75% to 25%. As a result, the remaining 75% will go to the Legislative Fund and the Legislature may continue to direct a portion to the Attorney General.

The measure would also restrict the use of the Legislative Fund. Section 40 currently states only that the Legislative Fund is subject to legislative appropriation. If this measure passes, money from the Legislative Fund must be used to get federal matching funds for Oklahoma's Medicaid Program.

SHALL THE PROPOSAL BE APPROVED?

- FOR THE PROPOSAL - YES
- AGAINST THE PROPOSAL - NO
