PALS Family, Inc. is accepting safety booth, vendor booth, and food truck registrants until October 2. In addition, special arrangements have been made to ensure all COVID-19 protocols are followed.

Founded in March 2020 by Amanda Hills-Dodson, PALS Family, Inc. is a family resource center and foster care agency, serving Western Oklahoma. PALS Family, Inc. "provides trauma-informed foster care families." The non-profit service operates out of Weatherford and strives to help the community better love and understand kids coming from hard places. To accomplish their goal, they host community outreach events, special trainings, support groups, and provide support to foster families and biological families involved in the OK DHS child welfare system.

Additionally, PALS Family, Inc. provides foster families, who are specially trained to support new moms and dads, in learning to care for their newborns. They also have supplemental support available to biological families who are seeking reunification with their children. They offer aid in writing court reports, reading important documents, and supervising visitations.

PALS Family, Inc. welcomes anyone who would like to volunteer at any level. As a part of their family resource center, PALS Family, Inc. offers two types of "life coaching" services: The PALSPal Program and the GrandPal Program. Both services facilitate a relationship between the PALS Family Inc. volunteer and either families or individual adults or children. These programs aim to establish lifelong friendships and support between the two as they journey to improve their lives and the lives of their children. The GrandPal Program offers a unique experience where children can engage with an older, wiser generation of loving adults and learn a thing or two about enjoying the simple things in life.

PALS Family, Inc. is actively recruiting families in Western Oklahoma to foster children, as well as volunteers for their PALSPal and GrandPal programs. To get in touch with PALS Family, Inc., you can email them at: PALS@pals.family-OK

Arthur Wayne Salisbury

Arthur Wayne Salisbury, age 84, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, joined our Heavenly Father on September 24, 2020. Wayne passed away due to various health complications at Saint Simeon's Episcopalian Senior Living Center, in Tulsa, OK.

Arthur Wayne Salisbury, also known as Wayne or AW, was a gregarious, ambitious, charitable, and loving son, brother, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather with a larger than life personality.

Wayne was born during the Great Depression at his home in McAlester, OK, on October 13, 1935, to Arthur Lafayette Salisbury and Virginia Louise (Frosc) Salisbury. He grew up hearing stories about the Old Country from his Grandfather Joseph Frosc (Giuseppe Frasca) and Uncle Tony Frosc (Antonio Frasca) both from the Municipio di Canischio, the Piedmont Region, in the Province of Turin, Italy, and from Grandmother Virginia Louise (Ferro) Frosc from a nearby town due north called Cuorgne, all born in the late 1800's, and arriving in America near the turn of the 20th Century. In 1942, with a World War raging, his family moved to Oakland, CA, where his father worked in the shipyards. Wayne's mother, homesick, eventually swayed his father to seek employment back in Oklahoma near McAlester in the U.S. Naval Bomb Building Ammunition Depot in Savanna, OK. During WWII, Wayne's brother Tony Lafayette Salisbury was born.

In high school, Wayne was editor of the school newspaper The Buffalo and an associate editor of the yearbook The Dancing Rabbit with thoughts of someday becoming a writer or a teacher. At McAlester High School, Wayne was under the tutelage of George Nigh, the founder of a student spirit group. Mr. Nigh soon realized Wayne's artistic abilities and asked him to make placards for various student organizations. Getting to know Mr. Nigh, Wayne volunteered to work on George's first campaign for the state house of Oklahoma. Listening to entertaining orations, Wayne learned the art of delivering a speech, which he used as a member of the local chapter of De Molay and throughout his life. Wayne graduated from McAlester High School in 1954 as a member of the National Honor Society. He was accepted to enroll in the pre-pharmacy program with a scholarship on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford and joined Tau Kappa Epsilon National Social Fraternity and Phi Delta Chi Pharmacy Fraternity.

At Southwestern, he met his future wife Joi Dell (Joidy) Diel, born on December 12, 1937, in Anadarko, OK. In 1942, her family had also moved to California and then back to Thomas, OK, at the end of the war. Joidy, a native of Western Oklahoma, was soon to take the heart of Wayne, a native of Eastern, Oklahoma. In 1958, Wayne graduated from Southwestern Oklahoma State University with a bachelor's degree in pharmacy. On July 6, 1958, Wayne and Joidy were married in Clinton, OK, at the First Christian Church. Joidy's parents were Marion A. and Virginia C. (Lorenz) Diel. Wayne stated that Marion was the most intelligent man he had ever met and was a guiding tower of strength in his life.

Wayne's professional career began with the Skillern's Drug chain, in Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas, followed by a year of managing an independent clinical pharmacy in Levelland, Texas. In 1961, the couple moved to Clinton, Oklahoma, where Wayne opened Salisbury Prescription Pharmacy on Main Street in Clinton and was honored to serve his community and patrons for thirty-six years.

The Salisburys became parents only a few years later with the birth of an infant boy in Clinton on November 27, 1963. In Wayne's memoir, TAKE THOU, he wrote about the adoption of their son Harold (Hal) Wayne Salisbury, "as nothing short of a miracle", the first of two miracles within the span of a few months. Then something happened when we crossed the threshold of our house. It dawned on me that he was our son. I became emotional as I felt the deepest love and attachment for him. There must be a spirit inside a human being that quickly fills us with this familial love. Suddenly, he had become ours, and he was the most beautiful baby, the most intelligent, the most perfect." By Christmas, Joidy was pregnant and this time she carried the child, a girl Kristin Joi Salisbury, born on August 26, 1964. While the Lord provided miracles for the Salisburys, Wayne continued to work six and seven days a week to provide for his family and lay the financial and spiritual foundation for generations to come. Wayne purposely set aside time with Joidy, Hal, and Kristy. He made sure the family had dogs, cats, and horses to ride, part of the Western Oklahoma tradition, helped the children participate in Future Farmers of America, the Clinton Round-Up Club, sponsored their little league team (The Salisbury Pills), and purchased motorcycles, a pastime he enjoyed with his children. He played a little golf, took lessons to become a pilot while joining the Oklahoma Wing of the Civil Air Patrol, and enjoyed skeet shooting, quail hunting and fishing. He joined the Clinton Kiwanis Club and bought and managed a few rental properties. Wayne loved going to local auctions and meeting and conversing with farmers and townspeople. Eventually, Wayne and Joidy bought a farm as an investment and Wayne began to play weekend farmer and cowboy when he could find the time. Around town he quickly became the ORIGINAL DRUGSTORE COWBOY, which was even painted onto his cattle trailer. Wayne and Joidy were always active in helping youth and volunteered numerous times as chaperones for European trips, sponsored by their dear friends Bill and Ruth Eskew, through Clinton High School. A strong passion for travel was quickly developed, which led them to travel to the Middle East and Asia. The couple enjoyed numerous excursions throughout many European countries and historic destinations with their close friends Judy and John Jordan.

Wayne was a true public servant throughout his life. Twice, he served as chairman of District 7 for the Oklahoma Pharmaceutical Association; was a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association; and by invitation only was accepted as a full-fellow in the prestigious American College of Apothecaries; Clinton District Lay Leader of 52 churches of the United Methodist Church; elected president of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce and in charge of Clinton's 75th Anniversary Celebration Gala. Wayne was a lifelong and active member of the Democratic Party and participated in a number of political campaigns. Originally appointed to the Oklahoma Board of Health, by then Governor George Nigh, who was also a friend, in 1975 he was appointed to the Board of Regents of the Six Regional Universities of Oklahoma, and was on the board for fifteen years, serving twice as chairman. Wayne also gave much of his time, serving on various committees for the Methodist Church, both locally and nationally.

In the early 1980's, Hal and Kristin attended university, Hal at OU and Kristin at SWOSU. Hal graduated with a degree in finance and earned his law degree from TU while Kristin graduated with a degree in elementary education and earned her master's degree from Central State University at Edmond. On October 30, 1997, Wayne sold Salisbury Prescription Pharmacy in Clinton, and soon he and Joidy moved to Edmond, OK, for three years before settling in Tulsa, OK. After moving to Tulsa, Wayne and Joidy transferred to Faith UMC. Wayne became a volunteer at Restore Hope, a mission to supply food and support to needy families in Tulsa County. In 2012, Wayne became the representative of the Circle of Care for Faith United Methodist Church and beginning in 2013, he began teaching the Faith Builders Sunday School class. During his retirement, Wayne enjoyed time with friends and family, painting, reading and attending cultural programs. A ferocious reader, he left behind a collection of meaningful books with an emphasis on history from his personal library. After the illness and death of his beloved wife Joidy, Wayne continued to live in Tulsa, Oklahoma, surrounded by his family and loved ones. Wayne moved to Legends Green Tree, a retirement center in March of 2019, located in Sand Springs, Oklahoma, and thoroughly enjoyed meeting new people, drawing caricatures of the residents, and occasionally delivering a sermon. He was very appreciative of his time there and his surrogate family, which embraced him during his five and half months of quarantine due to COVID-19.

Wayne lived his final years as a devoted member of the Oklahoma United Methodist Church and believed deeply in his heart that all Christians should join a church stating: "The church is the body of Christ, and I believe it is imperative to be a member. It is there that the sacrament of communion is performed, which is vital to the believer." Wayne always insisted that he was watched over and blessed by God. He had also been blessed with a wonderful wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Wayne is eternally grateful to his mother for leading both her sons to become Christian men with belief in God.

Wayne is preceded in death by his wife Joi Dell (Joidy) Salisbury, and by his parents Art and Virginia Salisbury. He is survived by his son Harold (Hal) Wayne Salisbury, of Tulsa, OK, married to Tracy Ann (Lorton) Salisbury and their children Morgan, Halle and Laurel. His daughter Kristin Joi Arnold of Cleveland, OK, married to James Michael Arnold and their children Andrew Wayne Dougherty, married to Jennifer (Reichert) Dougherty, of the United Kingdom, and their child Killian. Addison (Addie) Dell Dougherty, of Tulsa, OK and her child Averie and Jared Arnold, of Moore, OK. He is also survived by his brother Tony Lafayette Salisbury and his wife Margret Salisbury, of Madison, Wisconsin; their children: Eric Salisbury, of Madison, Wisconsin and his wife Emma Salisbury; their children Leif and Rory and Peter Salisbury, of Denton, Texas and his wife Erin Salisbury, along with their child Christopher.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to any of the following two endowed scholarships or the foundation: the Arthur W and Joi D Salisbury Scholarship at Southwestern Oklahoma State University at 100 Campus Drive, Weatherford, Oklahoma, 73096-3098, (580) 774-3267. Dog Sense

Kelly R. Kilhoffer
Oklahoma History
Enthusiast

Some folks just don't get dogs. You ever see folks in town buyin' a picket line for their ol' pooch?

"He won't stay home."
"She barks all night."

Folks dogs is free-spirits. If they're given the chance to run the pasture, explore the creek bottom or carouse the neighborhood, well guess what, they are gonna!

My wife thinks our dogs are third and fourth children. Thankfully, those first two don't hike a leg and lick themselves. "Our" dogs might be gone in the morning, come home just long enough to eat and then they're off again.

When they do show back up for a rest, they're dirty, full of cuckle-burrs and are often foot...ahem, paw-sore. You think there is no way...yep, gone the next mornin'.

Now, if I see my hounds chasin' livestock, it's another story all together. "Damn you! You know better than that! You're only supposed to chase those cattle when I say so!"

Now just how crazy does that sound? "Here's yer Christmas presents, kiddos, but you can only play with 'em when I say so."

Ya see a dog mostly has it made. They can run all day long grab-assin' with one another, then sleep for an hour 8,9,10 times a day. Yeah, it might be nice to be a ol' dog, but then again that hikin' a leg thing...on second thought- naw, I'm good.

"The Coin Guy" Mint Releases Error Ike Dollar by Mistake

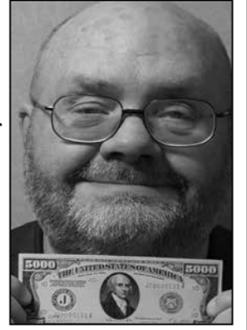

A tally of recent coin auctions has witnessed many error proof coins from the 1970's. This is about a 1973-S proof Eisenhower dollar. The oddity is that it was struck on a half-dollar planchet with the image of a double likeness of Eisenhower.

The mystery of this coin is: why and how it came into being? It may have happened when producing proof Eisenhower dollars as a clad proof or during a run to make silver Eisenhower dollars.

The finished coin displays a double profile of President Eisenhower. The date is barely visible on both strikes. It was part of a proof set with six coins. Amazingly, it left the mint without being caught.

This Eisenhower dollar was certified by the Numismatic Guaranty Corporation as a Mint Error Proof 66 Cameo (cameo is a mirror-like surface). It sold at auction on August 4, 2020 for $19,200.

Do you have questions about coins but are afraid to ask? Call The Coin Guy at 580-890-8076 so we can talk about your concerns at Jerry's. Thanks for reading.

Emery Hailey and Chezney Nielsen Named Bulldogs of the Week

Doug Self
SWOSU Sports Information Director

The SWOSU Athletic Department is proud to continue the selection for Bulldogs of the Week during the fall by choosing SWOSU Soccer's Emery Hailey and Bulldog Volleyball's Chezney Nielsen as the newest award recipients.

The award is brought to you by Wright Wradio, the home of the Bulldogs over the airwaves on both 95.5 'The Coyote' and 100.3 'Coyote Classic.'

Hailey (Grapevine, Texas) is a four-year member of the SWOSU Soccer program and she's been on two teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. She chose to attend SWOSU because the community was so welcoming and friendly and her favorite memory as a Bulldog was reaching the Sweet 16 in Minnesota during her freshman season.

Quote: "The best part of this challenging year so far has been getting to know my teammates off the field. You have to be more intentional when you don't have games each week."

Favorite Athlete: Julie Ertz – I love her work ethic and the way she leads by example as well as living for Christ with her platform

Personal Goal for Season: Use this extra time to become the best I can be athletically, academically and spiritually.

Nielsen (Roosevelt, Utah) is in her second season at SWOSU after transferring in prior to last season and she chose to become a Bulldog because she knew there was a program here that was passionate and love volleyball just as much as she does. Her favorite memory at SWOSU is the time the team showed up at the conference tournament too early for our first game and was locked outside the gym, so they sang 'No Air' by Jordan Sparks at the top of their lungs until they opened the doors for game day!

Quote: "Getting to know the teammates off the court before we ever got to know each other on the court has been a good thing for our team. We have been able to see each other as more than just volleyball players."

Favorite Athlete: Sara Sigmundsdóttir – she's a CrossFit athlete who is known for her grit and passion

Personal Goals for Season: I have made it a goal to take on every day with a little grace and not let a day pass without finding three things to be grateful for.

Voter Registration and Turnout Effort Underway at SWOSU

An effort to increase overall voter registration and turnout plus reduce the gap between students who register and students who actually vote is underway at Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

TurboVote is an online tool that helps students vote in every election—local, state and national. It is a product of Democracy Works, a non-profit, nonpartisan organization that was started by some graduate students who missed elections while away at school in 2010.

The #dawgsvote effort on the Weatherford campus is spearheaded by SWOSU Political Science Assistant Professor Dr. Heather L. Katz.

"TurboVote assists voters to register to vote by asking for the needed information," Katz said. "A nice feature of the service is that it sends reminders about deadlines either by email, text message or both."

Some of the other services provided are:

- The form can be printed and mailed/returned to the Dean of Students office
- Helps students decide where to register and has residence hall addresses pre-programmed
- Assists voters with absentee ballots and users can request pre-addressed, pre-stamped envelopes
- Assists voters with early voting options
- Informs voters where their polling place is for

in-person voting

·Informs voters of any changes to the ballot, polling places or times

·Informs voters what to bring to the polls for ID

·A help desk for any and all questions: voting, TurboVote technology, etc.

SWOSU's involvement in the program started when Katz and SWOSU Vice President of Student Affairs Dr. Ruth Boyd attended the Oklahoma Voting Summit in August and TurboVote was one of the tools recommended. Katz said TurboVote can be used by anyone and not just students.

For additional information or to sign up, go to this link: <http://swosu.turbovote.org/?r=News>. Katz can answer further questions by contacting her at heather.katz@swosu.edu.
