City of Weatherford Prepares for Second Annual "Boo Bash"

Courtesy Jessy Frizzell / Route 66 Nights

As like the 2022 Boo Bash, Jessy Frizzell Photography will be taking group and single photos, which will be upload to the Route 66 Nights Facebook Page.

Calling all general undeads! There's a Boo Bash, coming to downtown Weatherford Saturday, October 28th, from 5:30 pm to 8 pm that's certain to send shivers down your spine! Join the Weatherford Chamber of Commerce, The Route 66 Nights committee, and several local businesses and organizations as they celebrate the spooky season with a fun night for the whole family.

This year's Boo Bash on Main Street in downtown Weatherford is set to be the biggest the town has ever seen. Chock-full of events and live entertainment, you can start the night off by visiting all of the Trunk or Treat spots and grabbing some candy and goodies for the kiddos. Make sure your kids pay the candy tax, though!

Great Plains Family YMCA is slated to bring their fall carnival to downtown for the Boo Bash, so attendees can expect a variety of carnival games to test their skills as well as to win some great prizes. Wristbands for the carnival games start at $10 for the first wristband and then $5 for any additional wristbands, purchased for parties greater than one.

For all the foodies, there will be food trucks parked downtown, as well as free cotton candy, snow cones, and popcorn.

Want to make sure you have a keepsake to remember the night? Jesse Frizzell Photography has you covered and will have a photo booth set up to take family portraits at the event.

The Boo Bash has also invited OKC magician John Pansze to provide live magic for the event at the Gazebo in Centennial Park.

And, of course, no Halloween gathering would be complete without a costume contest, so why wouldn't this event have one? We invite all attendees to come out in their best costumes. See if you have what it takes to be crowned the Best Dressed in Weatherford!

For more information, visit the Weatherford Chamber of Commerce's Facebook page by searching 'Weatherford Area Chamber of Commerce' or by visiting their website at www.cityofweatherford.com/chamber-of-commerce/

Moonlight Madness Returns to Elk City

The Elk City Chamber of Commerce is celebrating halloween with their annual Moonlight Madness event in Downtown Elk City on Thursday, October 26th from 5pm to 8pm.

Moonlight Madness will offer late night shopping as well as in-store trick-or-treating for everyone from 5pm to 8pm.

There will also be several food trucks and vendors set up along main street for interested attendees to grab a bite to eat, find some local goods, or hop on a Pink Tractor Hay ride!

The Elk City Chamber of Commerce will also be holding a costume contest for children ages 0-10 and leashed pets. The pets costume contest is scheduled to begin at 5:45pm with the childrens' costume contest beginning at 6pm.

The Elk City Jazz band is scheduled to perform at the event starting at 7:15pm and then Elk City Public Schools and Merritt Public Schools will hold pep assemblies starting at 7:45pm.

The event will also be hosting Western Oklahoma's own professional basketball team the Western Oklahoma Bulls who will be doing a meet and greet from 6pm to 8pm.

For more information about the event you search 'Moonlight Madness- Elk City' on Facebook or you can visit the Elk City Chamber of Commerce's website at www.elkcitychamber.com/

Mike Scanlon

Michael Thomas Scanlon was born October 27, 1946, in Tulsa, to Herbert Thomas and Martha (Whitling) Scanlon and passed from this life Monday, October 16, 2023, at the age of 76 years, 11 months and 19 days. Mike accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior as a young man and he kept the faith.

Mike grew up in Tulsa. His father was a lab technician for Sun Oil Refinery and his mother was a registered nurse. Mike attended Nathan Hale High School in Tulsa, graduating in 1964. He played football in high school until he got hit by "Big John Kennedy" and that pretty much convinced him that football was not for him.

After high school, Mike attended and graduated from Northeastern A & M College of Miami. Then, during the Vietnam War, he enlisted in the United States Air Force and completed his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Mike served in the Air Force for four years with active duty overseas in Japan and Korea.

After the military, Mike wanted to become a Highway Patrolman. His Dad encouraged him to become a dispatcher first, which he did for two years. He applied for Oklahoma Highway Patrol Academy and was accepted into the ten-week training program. At the age of 26 he began his career as an Oklahoma Highway Patrolman where he served for 30 years. After retiring as a patrolman, Mike became self-employed as a safety consultant for six years.

Mike also worked as a Security Patrol Officer for Dillard's Department Store in Oklahoma City. That is where he met the love of his life, Pam Penner, who was working in the cosmetic department at that time. Mike and Pam shared the same birthday, so it was only fitting that they were married in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, on October 27, 1991. They called this day their "Birthiversary". Mike and Pam enjoyed taking many cruises and bus tours to places such as New England, Mt. Rushmore, Yellowstone National Park and the Grand Canyon. At the family holiday celebrations, Mike always had many fascinating stories from his highway patrol days to share with his nieces, whom he loved dearly.

Mike was heart-broken at the death of his wife, Pam. He longed for the day when he could join her in heaven.

Mike is survived by his brother-in-law, Jim Penner and wife, Elaine of Weatherford; nieces and their husbands and children, Erin and Matt Burnett and Carter of Colleyville, Texas, Tisha and Todd Franz and Sawyer and Rawley of Oklahoma City, and Kyler Roper and Logan of Bixby. He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; a niece, Shae Penner; and a great-nephew, Asher Roper.

F.A. Sewell

Frank Asa Sewell III, of Clinton, was born the first of two children to Frank Asa Sewell Jr. and Barbara Berry Sewell on December 3, 1948 in Clinton, Oklahoma. He died peacefully in his home on the evening of October 16, 2023 at the age of 74.

Frank, known as "F.A.," was blessed to lead a long and happy life. He loved nothing more than a great hat, a laugh, and a joke with his friends and family. His reserved spirit when it came to helping others was always something that he preferred to keep private. F.A. attended Clinton Public Schools and completed his high school education at Culver Military Academy in 1967. He continued his education at Oklahoma University. He was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity where he made many lifelong friends.

His sophomore year of college, he met his wife, Lucie Leaf. They were married on April 4, 1970, and he continued on with his education and graduated in 1971 with a degree in Finance.

After graduating from OU, F.A. served in the U.S. Army as a Military Police Officer in Augusta, Georgia. He then returned to his hometown of Clinton in 1972, where he served in the Clinton Army Reserves and began his career in banking at First National Bank. He and Lucie welcomed their first son, Frank, in 1973, and their second son, Berry, in 1974.

In his banking career that spanned 50 years, F.A. served in many roles and on a variety of boards for professional and civic groups. He served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of First Bank & Trust Company in Clinton for a number of years. He also served on the boards of the Clinton Industrial Foundation, Clinton Chamber of Commerce, Oklahoma Easter Seals, Advantage Health Insurance Trust, Oklahoma Bankers Association, and the Oklahoma Heritage Association. F.A. was a longtime member of the Clinton Rotary Club.

He also served as Vice-Chairman of the University of Oklahoma Foundation as well as Chairman of the foundation's investment committee. F.A. truly enjoyed being an active and vocal participant in any organization in which he was involved, especially those serving his hometown of Clinton.

F.A. was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 53 years, Lucie; son Frank Asa Sewell IV and his wife Amy; son Berry Leaf Sewell and his wife Adrienne; grandchildren Luke Austin Sewell, Andrew Berry Sewell, Sydney Lorraine Sewell, Frank Asa Sewell V, Annakate Eliza Ross, and Olivia Emiline Ross; sister Sally Wightman and husband Bob; and brother-in-law Steve Lobaugh.

Pauline Locke

Gladys Pauline Locke was born August 19, 1925, in Pryor, OK to Razz J. and Goldie Pearl (Lawrence) Charles and passed away Thursday, October 12, 2023, in the St. Anthony Hospital in Oklahoma City, OK.

Pauline was raised in Pryor, OK and graduated from high school in 1943. On My 29, 1943, she married the love of her life and high school sweetheart, Jerry Locke. Their first home was in Pryor. As a result of World War II, she worked for the Department of Defense for a short time at Oklahoma Ordinance work, a war plant. From this job she went to work at the Mayes County Court House in Pryor assisting veterans in filing their discharge papers.

Following Jerry's return from the Marine Corps they moved to Wagoner, OK in 1946. Their family increased to three with the births of Larry and Danny while living in Wagoner where Jerry got his start in the insurance business, and they moved to Oklahoma City in 1950 where Sheila Kaye was born.

Mrs. Locke worked in a paly a school and a Montessori school until they moved to Clinton in 1967. She was co-owner of the Jerry Locke Insurance Agency and worked as secretary receptions for her husband until his death on January 4, 1995. Following his death, she and her son Larry continued in the business until she sold in 1996.

She was saved in 1940 and has been active in the Baptist Churches in Wagoner, OK, Oklahoma City and Clinton. Since 1951 she has worked in Sunday School with the pre-school children and Bible School. She was also active in Baptist Training Union, Women's Missionary Groups where she held various offices and helped with funeral dinners.

She was a member of the Business Professional Women of Clinton and served as President in 1980-1981.

After her retirement she continued to work part time at Kiesau-Lee Funeral Home during visitation. She was a volunteer at the Mission Wear It Again Store in Clinton, Route 66 Museum, the Grace Living Nursing Home with BINGO, Meals on Wheels and the Auxiliary at Integris Clinton Regional Hospital.

She was never one to be idle. When her three children were in school, she was a homeroom mother for each one. She was a Cub Scout Den Mother, A Brownie Leader and active in P.T.A. while her children where in Oklaoma City grade schools.

She is preceded in death by her parents, and husband, and grandson, Daniel.

She is survived by her son, Jerry Lawrence (Larry) Locke and wife, Mary, Foss, OK, and his children and grandchildren, Heather Lee Ann, Amber Dawn, Mandi Kay, John, Matthew.

Son, Daniel Robert Locke and wife, Judy and his children and grandchildren, Shelly, Gary, Logan, Eathan, Mason and Owen.

Daughter, Sheila Barrick and husband, Brad, and her children and grandchildren, Nicole, Hillery, Caleb, Nyomi, Lola Kae, Kyson, Isaiah, Luke, Jovie, Frankie Faye and Joshua Daniel "JD".

She is also survived by two brothers, Willaims Chester "Blackie" Charles and Lester "Red" Charles.

Hydro Harvest Festival Happens Oct. 28

The Hydro Chamber of Commerce is proud to present their annual Hydro Harvest Festival on Main Street in Downtown Hydro on Saturday, October 28th from 9am to 3pm. The Hydro Harvest Festival is jam-packed with a variety of family friendly events and contests that is sure to be fun for everyone.

The Festival kicks-off at 9am with registrations for the chili cook-off, pie baking contest, and pumpkin decorating contest. Registration will run until 11am and interested parties can submit their chili's and pies inside Linder's Pub & Grill. Pumpkin contest participants can drop-off their pumpkins in front of Linder's Pub & Grill. Winners for the chili cook-off and the pie baking competitions will be announced at noon and winners will receive Hydro Chamber Bucks. The winners of the Pumpkin decorating competition will be announced at 12:30pm and will also receive Hydro Chamber Bucks.

In keeping with holiday traditions there will also be a Halloween costume contest for children ages 3-10 that is scheduled to begin at 11:30am in front of Main Street Clothing in Hydro. Winners will be selected at noon and will receive Hydro Chamber Bucks.

Along with all of the competitions there will also be over 50 local vendors selling food and an assortment of goods all throughout downtown Hydro as well as food trucks, face painting, live music, and a photo booth.

"Last year we had 22 booths... and this year we have 50," said Hydro Harvest Festival coordinator Kenna Oakley who has worked tirelessly with the local businesses and organizations to put on the event.

Among the vendors will also be bake sales and fundraisers for several Hydro-Eakly Public school organizations as well as local churches within the Hydro community. So come out to have some fun and support local businesses and organizations.

For more information about the Hydro Harvest Festival you can find them on Facebook by searching 'Hydro Harvest Festival'.

“The Coin Guy”

Retiring

Trent Boesen

Hello everyone. I hope you all are well and enjoying our early Fall weather.

I am writing this to inform all of my readers that I am retiring from writing a weekly coin article. Since the summer of 2009 I have endeavored to bring exciting news every week in the hobby of coin collecting.

During this time I have met some very interesting people. I would like to thank everyone who sent in suggestions for coin articles. Especially enjoyed by me were the numerous cards sent to thank me for my contributions to the West OK Weekly.

To the many who recognized me on the street, in restaurants, Post Office, etc, and commented on my writing ability to inform them—I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I am also retiring from being a Coin Dealer for the many who have allowed me to enrich and expand their personal coin collections. Thank you for allowing me to help.

I wish the best for you all.

Respectfully,
Trent Boesen — The Coin Guy

WOCS Admissions Counselor

Not in the mood to cook or looking for a place to grab a burger before heading off to your local football game? Make plans to eat at Western Oklahoma Christian School’s Hamburger Fry on Friday, October 27, at the Clinton Frisco Center, 101 S. Fourth Street. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m.-1:30 p.m. and dinner from 5-7:30 p.m. You can dine-in or opt for the convenient carry out. Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children. The meal includes a hamburger or hot dog, chips, baked beans, dessert, and drink.

Entz Auction and Realty will host the online auction. Bidding opens October 27 at 9 a.m. and closes November 7 at 9 p.m. Participants can view auction items at www.entzauction.com or scan the QR code for a full listing. A few of the items include OU football ticket package, four-night NFR trip to Las Vegas, half a beef, a Halo Elite 2B Griddle, eyebrow lamination, windshield chip repair, and guided hunting and fishing trips. Additional items are being added regularly.

During the event, an on-site silent basket auction and bake sale will run from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Basket themes include camping, fall, Pioneer Woman, Legos, farmhouse décor, sports spectator, coffee lovers, and Christmas. The bake sale will offer homemade cinnamon rolls, cakes, cookies, pies, and breads.

“Each year we look forward to this event. WOCS gets to serve delicious hamburgers to our friends, neighbors, and surrounding communities,” said Dora Miller, WOCS Head of School.

This event supports the Clinton, Weatherford, and Elk City campuses of WOCS. For more information contact WOCS at 580.323.9150.

WOCS is a non-denominational Christian school, founded in 1987. Initially holding classes in Bessie, two years later it moved to the current location in Clinton. The Weatherford campus was added in 2007 and the Elk City Campus in 2011. WOCS provides Bible-based academic instruction for students, beginning with pre-kindergarten and continuing through sixth grade. The school offers computer, art, music, physical education, and Bible classes in addition to the standard curriculum. WOCS is accredited through the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and the State of Oklahoma.

CLINTON SB / MS BIDS - Clinton Schools Superintendent Tyler Bridges says the district has good news surrounding bid packages for constructing a new middle school. Bridges says the groundbreaking is planned for mid-November.

CUSTER CO / LAWTER RD - The Lawter Road widening project near Weatherford has officially begun, according to Custer County District Commissioner Bruce Walker. Walker says it’s about a 270-300 day project.

CUSTER CO / ILLEGAL DUMPING - Illegal dumping has become a concern around Custer County. Sheriff Dan Day recently spoke about the negatives from the county’s perspective when residents illegally dump, mentioning that illegally dumped materials also become a fire hazard.

BURNS FLAT / PREMIUM AEROSPACE - The Premium Aerospace Center (PAC) in Burns Flat and Western Technology Center (WTC) are partnering to offer an aviation maintenance course. PAC and WTC are providing a general familiarization aviation course for new industry employees that will last through October 31st. PAC will provide the students with the equipment, tooling, materials, and aircraft required for the hands-on training of the course. Meanwhile, WTC is providing the facility, technology, and support for course delivery. The course gives students exposure to real-world commercial aviation aircraft and their required maintenance.

WEATHERFORD PD / BUILDING - Weatherford Economic Development Director Yolanda Creswell says the new building that will house the Weatherford Police Department and 911 center is about 90-95% complete. Creswell says once the department moves into the new building, a ribbon cutting will be held at a date and time yet to be determined.

TFC / BUS BARN - Thomas-Fay-Custer Schools Superintendent Rob Friesen says the district is currently taking bids to build a bus barn. Additionally, Superintendent Friesen says district enrollment is down about 10 students from last year, with about 455 students districtwide.

CLINTON / GLANCY PROPERTY - Clinton Mayor David Berrong says city officials are hoping for some quick movement surrounding the state of Oklahoma to utilize the Glancy Property for a new law enforcement center that will house the Oklahoma Highway Patrol. Mayor Berrong says the Glancy sign from the property will be retained.

CLINTON / KOONS - Former Clinton Football Coach, now Ringling head coach Phil Koons has been charged in Jefferson County District Court on a misdemeanor charge of outraging public decency after a lengthy investigation. Koons is accused of injuring public morals by using profane, degrading, and derogatory language towards student-athletes under his supervision.

Oklahoma History: Greatness Never Fades (Jim Thorpe's Story)

Courtesy PBS
King of Sweden presents medals and honors to Jim Thorpe. Olympic Games 1912.

Chase Wright
WW / Staff Writer

Oklahoma has had no shortage of world changing people in its history. People who have shaped different aspects of life from media, entertainment, aviation, law, pioneering, business, and sports. People like Will Rogers, Wiley Post, Thomas Stafford, Troy Aikman, Boone Pickens, and Sam Walton. Folks whose impact on life was great and widely recognized during their time. But this game-changer never got to truly experience their success. Passing penniless and with their achievements stripped away, James Francis Thorpe (Jim Thorpe) has quite the story to tell.

Jim Thorpe, now an American hero, was a professional baseball, football, and basketball player who had won two Olympic gold medals at the 1912 Summer Olympics in Stockholm. He was the first Native American to win a Gold medal for the United States. Thorpe was stripped of his Olympic titles in 1913 after months of controversy regarding his status as a competitor. At the time, Olympic games were strictly for amateurs only. Any competitor that had played for money, professionally taught, or had competed against other pros were not allowed to compete. Early in 1913, a story was released announcing Thorpe had indeed played professional baseball prior to his Olympic debut. After months of deliberation, the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) withdrew his amateur status and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) "unanimously decided to strip Thorpe of his Olympic titles, medals and awards and declared him a professional."

Major public backlash rang out over the decision for a few reasons. First, the AAU and IOC did not follow their own rules for disqualification. The 1912 Olympic rulebook stated that any protest to the results would need to be made within 30 days of closing ceremonies. The initial report against Thorpe was not released until January 1913, nearly six months after the games concluded. Second, Thorpe was not the first Olympian to compete in paid sports. Many of the recent Olympic athletes had competed in paid sports before. However, they all used pseudonyms whereas Thorpe competed under his real name. Athletes competing under false names were well-known and overlooked until Thorpe. Lastly, Thorpe was Native American, and in a time where most Native Americans were denied citizenship and accomplishments were disregarded because they were made by an "Indian". Although race was not officially designated as a reason for his medals to be stripped, public opinion over why the IOC fought so hard against him was not convinced otherwise. For example, one of Thorpe's first articles in The New York Times headlined with "Redskin from Carlisle Will Strive for Place on American Team".

After he was stripped of his medals, Thorpe began playing baseball for the New York Giants. They would end their 1913 season as repeat National League champions. During his time with the Giants, Thorpe's fame grew as his presence increased ticket sales and publicity. Thorpe even got to meet Pope Pius X and got to play in London for King George V. But he did not stop there.

Also in 1913, he joined an Indian-based professional football team where he had several winning seasons. Then, he signed with the Canton Bulldogs in 1915 and brought their 1,200-fan average to 8,000 for his debut game. They won titles in 1916, '17, and '19. In 1920, the Bulldogs joined with 13 other teams to form the American Professional Football Association. The association would go on to become the National Football League (NFL) two years later. Thorpe was the first president of the APFA.

Thorpe retired from professional sports when he was 41 and spent a lot of his time working small jobs and visiting his hometown roots of Oklahoma. Thorpe was a member of the Sac and Fox Nation and helped coach/develop multiple all-Native American sport teams. He set records in each sport he played, including his Gold medal performance in the decathlon (which stood for 2 decades). Thorpe won the hearts of anyone who watched him compete, and in a speech in 1961 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, the President, who had played against Jim in college, stated "he could do anything better than any other football player I ever saw."

Thorpe's physical prowess was unmatched, but despite his success, his demeanor and personality always remained humble and reserved. While he lived out the rest of his life, multiple articles and petitions were pushed to get his medals reinstated. For 30 years, they were declined until the IOC declared they would approve his reinstatement. On January 18, 1983, posthumously, they presented two of his children with commemorative medals. His original medals were stored in a museum and had previously been stolen (they were never recovered). The IOC listed Thorpe as a co-gold medalist with Ferdinand Bie and Hugo Wieslander. However, the two athletes had both previously deferred the honor to Thorpe citing him as "the real champion". Additionally, in a poll by ABC sports in 2000, Thorpe was voted Greatest Athlete of the Twentieth Century out of a roster including Muhammad Ali, Michael Jordan, Babe Ruth, and others.

In July 2020, a petition by the team making a film about Thorpe was released to get the IOC to reinstate Thorpe as the sole winner. A move that has been supported by other athletes including Olympian Billy Mills [The Oklahoman]. Officially, on July 15th, 2022, the International Olympic Committee fully restored Jim Thorpe as the sole winner in the 1912 decathlon and pentathlon events.

To echo the wise words of King Gustav V of Sweden, who presented Jim Thorpe with his original gold medals in the July 1912 Olympics, "You sir, are the greatest athlete in the world!"

Gunnarsson and Ward Named Newest Bulldogs of the Week

Grant Kopycinski
Sports Information Graduate Asst.

Elvira Gunnarsson (soccer) and Braylee Ward (women's rodeo) have been chosen as the latest Bulldogs of the Week. The weekly recognition is brought to you by Wright Wradio, home of SWOSU Athletics for both livestream and radio.

Gunnarsson (Kristianstad, Sweden) matched her career total in points in one game last week. In SWOSU soccer's 2-1 win over Harding, she scored the lone two goals for the Dawgs. Her two goals also came on only two shots. This is the freshman's first multi-goal game and doubles her goals on the year from two to four.

Ward (El Reno, Okla.) had her best showing as a Bulldog at the Cowboy Stampede over the weekend. She swept the barrel racing event after posting the best times in the long and short round. This gave her the best average and her first college title.

Bulldogs Fall to Southeastern in Durant

SWOSU Football dropped a 32-13 road affair with Southeastern Oklahoma State on Saturday afternoon.

SWOSU's first score came in the second quarter on an 85-yard rush from Dexter Brown, representing the second longest run from scrimmage in the program's Division II history dating back to 1997. (record is 93 yards set in 2015 by Kenneth Martey)

Brown finished with 91 yards on seven touches. He's now scored in back-to-back games.

Prior to Brown's house call, Southeastern led 17-0. The Savage Storm led 23-7 at halftime and added a touchdown and a field goal in the second half to extend the lead. The final score displayed awkwardly after Southeastern could not convert on a pair of extra-point kicks, and SWOSU tried and failed on a two-point conversion late in the game.

Trailing 32-7 late in the fourth quarter, Diondre Scott intercepted a pass in Southeastern territory and returned it 23 yards back inside the red zone. Shortly thereafter, Calvin Cloud connected on a 16-yard touchdown pass to Zion Mercer which concluded the game's scoring.

Cloud replaced Sean Shelby for the final two drives of the game at quarterback. The defense grabbed two interceptions on the day.

The other came from Donovan Jemerson just before halftime to deter a Southeastern scoring threat. Scott and Jemerson became the fifth and sixth Bulldogs to record an INT this season.

Similar to last week's Oklahoma Baptist performance, the defense put the clamps down in the second half after allowing just nine points and holding Southeastern to 140 yards of total offense. It came in response to a first half which saw the Savage Storm put up 23 points and 269 yards of offense.

RJ Powell led the defense with 10 tackles and one of those for loss. Richard Silva had two tackles for loss and six overall. Final offensive numbers showed SWOSU with 286 yards – a season high – compared to 409 from Southeastern.

Despite SWOSU's two interceptions, they did not win the turnover battle after Shelby was picked off on back-to-back drives in the second half.

The Bulldogs will remain away from Weatherford next Saturday when they travel to face Southern Arkansas, who has been receiving votes in the national poll. Kickoff will come at 2pm in Magnolia, Arkansas for that one. SWOSU's final home, and senior day, game will come November 4 against Henderson State.
